(1) For 2019-2023, this information is provided as at August 31 of the period shown. For 2024, this information is provided as of February 29, 2024. The total net asset value refers to the net asset value determined for fund pricing purposes.

(2) Management expense ratio is based on total expenses (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs) for the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of weekly average net asset value during the period.

(3) Management expense ratio excluding IPA is based on total expenses, less IPA and change in contingent IPA, for the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of weekly net asset value during the period.

(4) Management expense ratio before waiver/recovery is based on total expenses before management fees waived and marketing service fees recovered and is expressed as an annualized percentage of weekly net asset value during the period. Management fees earned by the Manager for the period prior to Golden reaching $5 million in aggregate gross sales of Class A-B Shares, Class I-B Shares and Class R-B Shares were waived by the Manager. The Manager also reimbursed the Class R Fund for its share of marketing service fees earned by Golden's principal distributor on the first $5 million of aggregate sales of Class A-B Shares, Class I-B Shares and Class R-B Shares. This waiver of fees and reimbursement of expenses has now been discontinued, and all future management fees and marketing service fees with respect to the Class R-B Shares will be paid by the Class R Fund.

(5) Management expense ratio before waiver/recovery and excluding IPA is based on total expenses before management fees waived and marketing service fees recovered, less IPA and change in contingent IPA, for the stated period and is expressed as an annualized percentage of weekly net asset value during the period.

(6) The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of the average weekly net asset value during the period.

(7) The Class R Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Manager manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Class R Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the year. The higher a fund's portfolio turnover in a year the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of the Class R Fund.

(8) This information is provided as of August 31, 2022. The first Class R-B shares were issued on January 7, 2022.

(9) Management expense ratio before waiver/recovery is based on total expenses before management fees waived and marketing service fees recovered and is expressed as an annualized percentage of weekly net asset value during the period. Management fees earned by the Manager for the period prior to Golden reaching $5 million in aggregate gross sales of Class A-F Shares, Class I-F Shares and Class R-F Shares were waived by the Manager. The Manager also reimbursed the Class R Fund for its share of marketing service fees earned by Golden's principal distributor on the first $5 million of aggregate sales of Class A-F Shares, Class I-F Shares and Class R-F Shares. This waiver of fees and reimbursement of expenses has now been discontinued, and all future management fees and marketing service fees with respect to the Class R-F Shares will be paid by the Class R Fund.

Management Fees

The annual management fee, which is calculated and payable monthly, is equal to 2.5% of the aggregate net asset value of the Class R Fund, as at each valuation date. The Manager has been retained to manage and administer the business affairs of Golden, including the management of the Class R Fund's investments in eligible businesses and its marketable securities investments, and maintain all required books and records of the Class R Fund. The Manager is also responsible for seeking out and identifying investment opportunities and undertaking operational due diligence of the investment opportunities. The Manager develops investment recommendations to the Board, monitors all investments, provides performance reports to the Board, and makes disposition recommendations to the Board. For these services, the Manager is compensated with the management fees. A 20% IPA is also payable to the Manager, provided certain criteria have been met. The IPA is only earned on realized gains that the Class R Fund has received in cash and the realized investment performance of the Class R Fund. The criteria are fully described in Golden's prospectus.

The performance data provided does not consider sales, redemption, or other optional charges payable by any shareholder that would have reduced returns. Past performance does not necessarily indicate how a fund will perform in the future.
